SMALL TALK.

We had the pleasure of a call from Mr. spots all about his head and shoulders.

This plan was not, however, a good plan, because even if they succeeded the black was not the patient's natural color, like heart was white yet, and would remain white. The life-blood in it was white, and in time the stain would were off, and the patient be as white as ever.

"Let the nerves and arterles, the channels throu h which its heart's blood flows, be black, and let us give imagine through it forthwith, and are about it now, trying it forthwith, and are about it now, trying to get another amendment to that effect of the specific or in the specific pots all about his head and shoulders.

Japanese Troupe make their first appearance in the Westiger Hall to-night. This troupe consists of the most unique and wonderful jingglere, magicians, baluncers, stalletes, are bats, gymnasts and musticans, from Jeddo, Japan—being the first private citizens ever permitted to leave the empire—and will appear in the marvelous and asstounding feats, and have never before been witnessed outside the dominions of his highness the Trocon of Japan. Seats may be secured a the hall or at the music store of Mr. D. P. Faulds, Main street. They are certainly the wooders of the Age.

husband's moral nature little twigs that are always growing in wrong that are always growing in wrong She keepe him in shape directions. She keeps him in shape by continual pruning. If you say anything silly, she will affectionate-ly tell you so. If you declare that you will do some absurd things she you will do some absurd things she will find means of preventing your doing it. And by far the chief part of all the common sense there is in the world belongs unquestionably to woman. The wisest things a man commonly does are those which his wife connsels him to do. A wife is the grand wielder of the moral pruning-knife. It shows the the pretensions of Northern Radicais, HOOSierdom to the Rescue and the outrageousness of their conduct towards the Southern States in attempting to force upon them negro suffrage.

WELCOME IOWA! The returns from the far off Prairie State are meager, but they unexpectedly ow Democratic gains.

We shall have to await the clearing the smoke from the battle field before we en understand the thoroughness and ness of our victory. It suffices us to know that truth and freedom are regaining their hold of the popular mind, and that the Democracy has occasion to cjoice over its unparaileled strides to ard a reinstatement ln power. tendance at the Bath courts for two weeks, but the "shamocrats" took good care not to call on him for a speech. They caught him there last March, during the contest between McKee and Young, and get him to make a speech, in which he declared his sentiments in favor of coercion and the suppression of the lite rebeilion by force of arms. This did not set seell with the "shams," and thereafter they will "let him alone," for no man is a Democrat, according to Lee Bath standard, unless he was, and is still, opposed to coercion, and the greater his opposition in this respect the better his Democracy.
